
How is the Qurʾān - central to all Muslim societies - to be understood today in order to meet the needs of these societies? Abdullah Saeed, a distinguished Muslim scholar, explores the interpretation of the ethico-legal content of the Qurʾān, whilst taking into consideration the changing nature of the modern world. Saeed explores the current debates surrounding the interpretation of the Qurʾān, and their impact on contemporary understanding of this sacred text. He discusses the text's relevance to modern issues without compromising the overall framework of the Qurʾān and its core beliefs and practices, thus proposing a fresh approach, which takes into account the historical and contemporary contexts of interpretation. His book is essential reading for students and scholars seeking a contemporary approach to the interpretation of the Qurʾānic text.
